

DO NOT BEGIN A STEP UNTIL TOLD TO DO SO!

1. Circle whether you agree or disagree in the SELF ✓ column for each statement.
2. When told to do so, read the selection and write down the page and paragraph(s) where each statement is discussed in the article.
3. When told to do so, get with a partner and compare answers. Discuss each item and come to consensus (agreement) on each item and circle whether you now agree or disagree with the statement.
4. When told to do so, get with another partnership and compare answers. Discuss each item and come to consensus (agreement) on each item and circle whether you now agree or disagree with the statement.
5. When told to do so, move back to your original seat and participate in the class discussion.

SELF ✓	STATEMENT	EVIDENCE (page and paragraph)	PARTNER ✓	GROUP ✓
Agree Disagree	1. The Great Depression was a U.S. problem that had little affect on other countries.		Agree Disagree	Agree Disagree
Agree Disagree	2. Government action caused the Great Depression.		Agree Disagree	Agree Disagree
Agree Disagree	3. Franklin Delano Roosevelt did more for the country than Herbert Hoover.		Agree Disagree	Agree Disagree
Agree Disagree	4. Roosevelt's New Deal improved the world economy.		Agree Disagree	Agree Disagree
Agree Disagree	5. World War II brought an end to the Great Depression.		Agree Disagree	Agree Disagree